LLOYDS BANK NORTH AMERICA APPOINTS NEW HEAD OF GLOBAL CORPORATES BUSINESS

Lloyds Bank Commercial Banking North America has appointed Alasdair Gardner to head up its Global Corporates coverage team.

Gardner joins the team from Lloyds Bank in the UK where he was Regional Managing Director of Scotland and North England for Mid-Markets, responsible for providing a full range of banking services to Mid-Market and SME organizations across Scotland.

He will report into Mark Grant, Managing Director, International.

Mark Grant, commented: "Alasdair's appointment represents a further, important investment in Lloyds Bank's Commercial Banking business in North America and his arrival enhances both the team and the high quality services we can offer our clients. We have seen significant growth in the region over the past few years, as we respond to the needs of our North America clients looking to invest in the UK and Europe and our international clients seeking to invest in the US. I'm delighted that through Alasdair's leadership we will build on that success as a US-UK gateway for our clients."
